

Plant of the Month

Oakleaf Hydrangea

A durable type of hydrangea native to the southeast and midwest, this shrub provides landscape interest with flowers, foliage, and bark. Large clusters of white flowers that can turn pink to red, depending on variety.

Exfoliating bark and burgundy fall foliage add to the appeal of this hardy hydrangea. The Blooms Bros. have three different varieties to choose from in June.

